

Developments in Energy Markets: A multidisciplinary perspective

University of Bergen, Faculty of Law
Bergen, Norway
14th and 15th of January 2019

AGENDA

Day 1

Introductory remarks 9.00 to 9.15: Ignacio Herrera Anchustegui + Ernst Nordtveit (TBC)

Session 1

9.15 to 10.00 Anne de Geeter, ETFA Surveillance Authority – Overview of energy law in the EEA Agreement in light of the Third Energy Package

10.00 to 10.45 Donald Kreiken (Tennet) – Clean Energy Package and who does what with Network Codes -

Coffee Break – 10.45 to 11.15

Session 2

11.15 to 12.00 – Ruben Skifjell Larsen (Equinor) - Northern Lights CO2 Storage

12.00 to 12.45 Mette Bjørndal (NHH) - Topic to be determined

Lunch 12.45 to 14.00

14.00 to 15.00 Key Note speaker – Eirik Amundsen (UiB) – Green Certificates

Session 3

15.00 to 15.45 – Christian Bergqvist (Copenhagen University) - Competition Law uses and abuses in pursuing the internal energy market

15.45 to 16.30 – Maria Ioannidou - Effective Paths for Consumer Empowerment and Protection in Retail Energy Markets: the UK Price Cap Act (Queen Mary University of London)

Day 2

Session 4

Speaker 1: 8.30 to 9.15 – Michael Tatham (UiB) - Mapping legal authority on climate and energy issues: a multi-scale, multi-domain, and multi-phase approach

Speaker 2: 9.15. to 10.00 - Tina Hunter – Changing role of national oil companies in international energy markets (University of Aberdeen)

Coffee Break – 10.00 to 10.20

10.20 to 11.20 Key Note speaker – Scott Hempling (Georgetown University)

Closure remarks 11.20 to 11.35 – Ignacio Herrera Anchustegui

Farewell lunch